

GANES VALUE GROWTH FUND

The Fund recorded a negative return of 0.97% for February mainly on the back of an 18% fall in the Domino's share price during the month and increasing market volatility at the end of the month initiated by overseas sharemarket movements. Volatility may create uncertainty and losses for short-term traders, and dramatic headlines for news editors, but for long-term investors like ourselves it can create the buying opportunities we are constantly searching for.

Surprisingly, there was very little portfolio activity during the month despite the flurry of reporting season, normally quite an active period for us. However, since month-end we have added to various positions as well as initiate two new positions.

Portfolio performance across the top ten holdings was mixed with ARB Corporation (+7%), Mortgage Choice (+4%), Blackmores (+5%) and Saferoads (+2%) contributing to performance. While Treasury Group (-5%), Domino's Pizza (-18%), Goodman Fielder (-5%), Servcorp (-4%) and Fiducian Portfolio Services (-11%) all detracted from portfolio performance.

Last month Domino's was our strongest performer and at the time we thought the 21% price increase was premature given the likelihood of a poor profit result. This was indeed the case although we remain confident after discussing the result with management that the fortunes of this company will improve and the European investment will prove rewarding for shareholders.

The only change to the top ten holdings over the month was the return of Saferoads to the list replacing Fiducian Portfolio Services as a result of share price movements.

At month end 79% of fund assets were invested across 36 companies with the balance held in cash.

GANES VALUE GROWTH FUND

The Ganes Value Growth Fund provides investors with exposure to a unique portfolio of Australian listed companies that will provide growth and income to investors over the longer-term. It is their meticulous approach to studying companies while taking into account the macro-level drivers of Australian business that make Ganes such a capable investment firm.

Ganes investment methodology comprises both quantitative and qualitative analysis commonly called fundamental analysis. This research process ensures that financial ratios and measures are used to demonstrate that the company produces superior returns, while also making experienced judgements about the underlying strength of the business and the talent of its management team.

The team at Ganes often refer to the following quote as an insight into their investment strategy:

"If you are a prudent investor or sensible businessman, will you let Mr. Market's daily communication determine your view of a $1000 interest in the enterprise? Only in case you agree with him or want to trade with him. You may be happy to sell out to him when he quotes you a ridiculously high price, and equally happy to buy from him when his price is low. But the rest of the time you will be wiser to form your own ideas of the value of your holdings, based on full reports from the company about its operations and financial position." - (extract from The Intelligent Investor by legendary investor Ben Graham)

The Ganes Investment Philosophy distills down to paying a reasonable price for a growing quality business, and therefore is a process based on individual stock selection to generate superior returns. A 'typical' investment in the portfolio is a profitable, growing business with an easily understood business model that can be purchased at a price that will deliver, in the opinion of Ganes, a superior return over the medium to long term.

With an attractive investment opportunity identified, Ganes will allocate 1 to 2 percent of the fund's assets to an initial purchase, then over time build a larger stake in the business as comfort levels increase with the business and its management. Holdings will be added to, reduced, or sold entirely as changes in the underlying economics of the business, market pricing, or Ganes' assessed value of the company occurs.
